HE/LX® (Holter) Analysis Software

Enhanced AFib Beat Detection and Analysis Available in Pro and Enhanced Plus Software Levels

14-Day Holter Analysis

Industry Leading 3-Year Warranty

Description

The HE/LX Holter Analysis Software and its efficient file structure on which it is built, offers the doctor's office, the scanning service, and the most demanding cardiac practice, the fastest and most user-friendly environment to reduce the time spent in producing intuitive and accurate patient results.

Applications
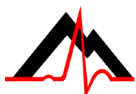

- Up to 14-day Holter
- OxyHolter analysis
- Sleep
- 6MWA and respiration

Availability

- Support and updates included under Warranty
- Extended Warranty and support available
- Contact us for European availability

Features

- Enhanced AFib Analysis
- Four software levels to choose from
- User friendly editing / GUI
- Customizable criteria & reports
- Flexible Licensing Options
- Remote and Network configurations
- Import data from non-NorthEast recorders
- Windows 7™ and 10™ compatible

NorthEast Monitoring, Inc.
advancing Holter technology™

ISO 13485:2003
CERTIFICATION
Intertek

CE 0413

NB: In the U.S.A., Federal Law restricts devices to sale by or on the order of a physician. Not for in vitro diagnostic use. Not intended to replace real-time telemetry monitoring for patients suspected of having life-threatening arrhythmias.

February 2019   510(k)K930564, K081861